

CONFIDENTIAL JURY QUESTIONNAIRE

Instructions:

Those of you who serve on the jury in this case will decide questions of fact. In order to ensure that each of you can do so fairly and according to the law, we engage in a process known as voir dire. This is a phrase that means “to speak the truth.” Lawyers from both sides will consider your answers. We rely on your truthfulness to ensure a fair trial.

You are requested to give true and complete answers to all questions. The purpose of the questions on the following pages is not to ask unnecessarily about personal matters, but solely to provide information about you, as a potential juror, to help the attorneys select a jury.

Where indicated, please check the space for “Yes” or “No,” and, as requested, furnish answers, explanations or details in the space provided. Please print or write your answers clearly in blue or black ink. Please do not leave any question unanswered. If you do not understand any question or do not know the answer, please write, “I do not understand,” or “I do not know,” in the space provided for the answer. If there is not enough space for you to write out an answer, please continue your answer in the margin next to the question. Do not write on the back of any page. If you believe that any of the questions do not apply to you, please write “N/A” in the space provided.

When you come back to court, the judge and the attorneys may ask specific questions about some of the information in your questionnaire. If there are things you do not want to talk about in open court, please circle the question numbers and list them at the end of the questionnaire in the space provided for this purpose. Arrangements will be made to question you privately about these matters.

Do not discuss the questions or answers with any other person or with fellow jurors. It is very important that your answers be your own individual answers.

Please answer the questions below honestly and completely. Your answers will be used only by the Court and the attorneys in this case to select a jury and for no other reason. The confidentiality of your answers will be strictly maintained.

The Case:

United States of America v. John Louis Blalack, Sarah Adelia Graves, Shelbie Brooke Richards and Robert Henry Rice

The criminal case about to be tried is the result of charges brought against four separate people by a grand jury sitting in the Southern District of Mississippi. The charges that have been filed are not evidence. All of the persons charged are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt at trial.

This case involves allegations by the United States Government that John Louis Blalack, Sarah Adelia Graves, Robert Henry Rice and Shelbie Brooke Richards committed various crimes in the Southern District of Mississippi in the late Spring and early Summer of 2011. All the defendants are alleged to have participated in a conspiracy to violate the civil rights of African American citizens located in Jackson, Mississippi. Each of the defendants is alleged to have participated in or committed one or more crimes of violence against African American people in Jackson. Two of the defendants are alleged to have violated federal weapons laws in association with their crimes. Two of the defendants are alleged to have solicited others to commit crimes of violence against African Americans in Jackson. One defendant is alleged to have made false statements to the FBI in connection with these crimes.

All of the people charged have pleaded not guilty to all charges and have exercised their right to trial by jury.
